DR. DON GALARDI REPORT ABOUT HIS TWO WEEKS IN MEDELLIN AND CALI

“Having just returned from two weeks of teaching in both Medellin and Cali, I can once again attest to God's powerful work in the protestant church of Colombia. I was on a mission to teach for the Latin American Reformed seminary located in Medellin. My course, titled "What is Reformed Theology." I was delighted to see more than forty-five students in the class and eager to learn. I have been teaching in Colombia for eight years and this class represented the most engaged and diligent students that I have had the privilege to instruct. In addition to the Colombian students, many were also from several other Latin countries including Guatemala, Venezuela, Belize and Brazil. This attests to the seminary's growing scope of influence beyond the nation of Colombia. My wife even had the opportunity to use her gifts in the kitchen while cooking several meals for the students during our stay.

I also taught during the second week for a satellite campus of the seminary located in Cali. Once again, the diligence of the students was highly evident. If I asked questions, the students were forth coming with well thought out answers. It is also apparent that these first generation Christians are concerned with evangelism and disciple making. This is a delight to my eyes because it is apparent that these students do not desire simply increase their knowledge with the result of no action. On the contrary, they desire to share, evangelize and disciple new believers in the reformed training they have learned.

With these thoughts in mind, I continue to believe that this international work is a prudent use of missionary dollars. Money spent on SLR is money well spent! I highly endorse it for donor monthly support and special giving. To God be the glory! Dr. Don E., Galardi Community EPC Owosso, MI”

SRL SEMINARY OPENS IN CUBA & HOUSTON

Dr. Benítez and Noé Acosta met with a representative of 54 Cuban pastors who requested opening a branch of the SRL Seminary in Cuba. The Cuban pastors will arrange with the Cuban government all the logistics and the legal teaching visas for the professors who will participate in the modules. Please pray for Dr. Acosta, who, God willing, soon will be traveling to Cuba to make final arrangements. A year ago, we walked through a similar gospel opportunity door in Venezuela where SRL has 2 campuses and over 100 students.

The SRL theological conference in Houston, Texas, was a tremendous success. Timothy McKeown, Executive Director of Reformed Theological Seminary in Houston, attended the entire conference and publicly spoke on behalf of SRL and RTS to promote theological education in that city. SRL will open soon in Houston in two facilities, which are free of cost to SRL.
